1. Chinese Communist Government supporters in Thailand are exerting pressure on wealthy Chinese merchants and firms to force them to buy the Chinese Communist Victory Bonds. One individual, Chop Kow Yui Hah, has been requested to buy 250,000 baht worth of the bonds.
  2. The Sin Thai Film Co., Lim Ngori, Ung Kim Leng, and the Andar Company are in charge of the sale of the Victory Bonds.*
  3. Since 60 percent of the Chinese in Thailand have shown no sympathy toward the Communist administration in Swatow, the Chinese Communists are attempting to exert pressure through the remittance businesses (Pao Guan). To counter the non-cooperation of the Pao Guan, the Chinese Communists in Thailand set up a policy of forcibly exploiting through the establishment of four big agents.** This last measure has not been very successful and the latest development is the organization of five divisions***, of which the following are members:
    - 1 Division - Kuang Eia Yoo, Chin Seng Hong, Phua Ha Lee, Chin Heng Chieng, Ngow Thye Ang, and Nam Chiang Long.
    - 2 Division - Kiu Huat Lee, Hua Hong Thye, Thian Gwa Thian, Chin Thye Hong, Song Heng Lee, and Chin Seng Heng.
    - 3 Division - Kuang Soon Lee, Kuang Hua Seng, Song Heng Lee, Yoo Heng Seng, Chin Thye Long, and Mui Heng Chieng.
    - 4 Division - Thy Seng Heng, Huan Yong, Liang Soon Lee, Thy Heng Yoo, Yong Thy Siang, and Lee Hiang Kee.
    - 5 Division - Chin Hua Hong, Lee Kuang Kee, Thye Hah Chieng, Kow Meng Huat, and Kuang Hua Heng.
  4. Chulin Lamsam is reported to have left for Peiping by plane.****
  5. The Communist organization in Thailand no longer permits "credit remittances".
